

PINK TURNS BLUE 2016 – The AERDT – Untold Stories

Third chapter of the band's story.

After a creative pause Mic Jogwer decided to reduce the band back to the substantial:

Like at the beginning: 3 people, vocal/guitar, bass/keyboards, drums. Thereby reduced, clear, intensive, driving Post Punk of the finest. Always live, intimate, real and vibrantly recorded.

Everything self-made, self-produced, self-finished. Just as at the very beginnings.

This spirit was to be caught to get a new life into the group.

Since the re-union around 2005 the band managed to reach the top of the independent charts with their club singles every time, always at least Nr. 3 if not Nr.1. The complete album went top 20 of the annual charts also.

Additionally, the album most of the time got album of the month in all relevant genre magazines, here and there even album of the year.

Now Mic Jogwer and his 2 comrades come up with a fresh version of their typically moving and profound songs.

At the same time, they remained faithful to their strengths and originalities: capturing, wholehearted vocals, atmospheric guitars with bass and drums always essential and fundamentally driving the songs.

Between danceable and atmospheric club songs like Dirt, Something Deep, Devil, Clown, Roads and hijacking counterworld ballads like Give Me Your Beauty, Here Is To You My Love, Tomorrow Never Comes and I Believed.

Musically and soundwise matching the Post Punk Revival which can be experienced globally.

The current set-up:

Mic Jogwer: vocals, guitars, piano

Ruebi Walter: bass, keyboards

Paul Richter: drums

After sold-out shows in Germany the band is now playing selected club shows by invitation in the capitals in Europe.
